

Permissions Letter Template

Dear _____:

I am writing to request permission to reproduce, in a forthcoming scholarly publication, the following material that you have published:

Author(s)/Editor(s):

Book or Journal Title:

Article Title:

Volume and issue no. if applicable:

Date of publication:

Pages as they appear in your publication:

Other identifying information, and/or remarks:

If you do not control the rights in this material, please let me know who does.

This material will be reproduced without alteration, unless otherwise indicated below, in the following work I am writing/editing, to be published by Southern Illinois University Press, described as the Press below:

Working title of book:

Anticipated date of publication:

Please note that this is a work of scholarship with a limited audience. To achieve broad dissemination of this work to scholars, we intend to use digital media in addition to print and languages beyond English. With that in mind, I request a non-exclusive license for the Press as follows:

Territory: Worldwide.

Language(s): English, plus the right to license translations of the book/article/essay with your material included.

Media: Print; media for people with reading-disabilities; and any other medium in which the Press may decide to issue or license others to issue the book/article/essay with your material.

Revisions: The forthcoming editions and all revised editions of the book.

Assignees: Assignable, but only as part of assignment of the book/journal as a whole.

I will acknowledge the source of your material in accordance with scholarly norms. If you require any particular form of acknowledgment, please let me know.

In setting a fee for the permission I request, please bear in mind the scholarly nature of this project and the fact that the Press is a not-for-profit publisher. I would be truly grateful if you would waive the fee altogether.

Thank you for your consideration of this request. A duplicate copy of this letter is enclosed for your convenience.

Sincerely yours,

---

Acknowledged and agreed.
